DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 20 and 22, drawn to method and apparatus for automatically aseptically bottling, classified in class 53, subclass 426.
- II. Claims 23-34, drawn to an aseptic processing apparatus for aseptically bottling, classified in class 53, subclass 79.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions Group I and Group II are related as combination and subcombination.

Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination does not require to have a sterile tunnel, conveying apparatus, a lidding apparatus, nor a bottle discharge apparatus. The subcombination has separate utility such as a sterile tunnel, conveying apparatus, a lidding apparatus, and a bottle discharge apparatus.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 3721

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

During a telephone conversation with Mr. Arlen Olsen on 12/5/2001 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Group I, claims 20 and 22. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 23-34 withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

~~35, 55, 57-62~~
Claims 20, and 22, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gies (4,862,933) in view of Olsson (5,799,464).

Gies discloses a method and apparatus for aseptically packaging aseptically sterilized foodstuffs comprising the means for providing a plurality of containers (cups 15); aseptically disinfecting the plurality of containers (apparatus 19) see for example (column 4, lines 18-23); aseptically filling the aseptically disinfected plurality of containers with the foodstuffs (apparatus 20) see for example (column 4, lines 23-25); and aseptically disinfected plurality of containers at a rate greater than 100 container per minute (column 4, lines 35 and 36) the machine can be operated to produce 33,600 packages per hour which is equal to 560 packages per minute. Gies made of glass or plastic does not disclose the container is bottle. However, Olsson discloses containers made of glass or plastic bottles was filled with product from a filling machine (column 3, lines 38-45).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified Gies's method and apparatus for aseptically packaging aseptically sterilized foodstuffs by having containers made of glass or plastic bottles, as suggested by Olsson and because it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416;.
